

Amy Hanf, Esq.

ASSOCIATE

ahanf@kdghrsolutions.com

Employment Counseling &
Litigation for Management

Amy L. Hanf is an associate in the Labor and Employment Law department. She represents management in employment litigation and counseling matters related to harassment, discrimination, wage and hour compliance, wrongful termination, and contract issues. Amy has represented management in administrative proceedings as well as litigation matters.

Prior to joining KDG, Amy focused her practice on litigation involving pharmaceuticals and medical devices. She has also litigated habeas corpus matters involving U.S. citizens held overseas.

Education:

Bachelor of Arts, University of California at Los Angeles, 2001

Juris Doctor, Northwestern University School of Law, 2005

Professional Experience

Klein, DeNatale, Goldner, Cooper, Rosenlieb & Kimball, LLP, 2011-present

Robins, Kaplan, Miller & Ciresi, LLP, 2006-2009

County of San Diego, Department of the Public Defender, 2005

Bluhm Legal Clinic, Northwestern University School of Law; 2004-2005

The Office of the Cook County Public Defender, Juvenile Division; 2004

Practice Focus:

- Wage and Hour
- Wrongful Termination
- Harassment/Discrimination
- Employment Counseling

Professional/Community Activities

- Kern County Bar Association, 2011-present
- State Bar of California, 2011-present
- Kern County Women Lawyers Association, 2011-present
- California Women Lawyers Association, 2011-present

Strategic Human Resources. Employment Law Solutions.

www.kdghrsolutions.com

